FAIR BOARD WILL WATCH CORNERS

By Trying Out New Ideas, it Hopes to get Away From Time-Honored Policy of Going in Debt.

NO PASSES WILL BE ISSUED

To Make Sure of This no Complimentary Tickets Will be Printed. Plans Already Made.

With a view to carrying out a policy of retrenchment so that the people of Rush county may have a better fair each year, the board of directors of the Rush County Fair association this year is going "to watch the corners," and the first step in this direction is the announcement of the secretary, J. Q. Thomas, that no passes will be given this year.

To make it sure that its orders will be carried out, the board is not going to have any complimentary tickets printed. This is in line with the attitude of the Indiana state fair which has found it very profitable since no complimentary tickets have been given out indiscriminately.

Mr. Thomas has been actively identified with the state fair management for years and it has always been one of his hobbies that the state fair would make money by doing away with passes completely. Under the different methods this year, the fair board hopes to reduce the usual deficiency to nothing. In the last few years, the fair has been increasing instead of reducing the fair debt. Last year $647 was added to the debt.

The present management of the fair sees no reason why the fair should not make money. When the fair was first started, it made money. The fair grounds and the buildings on it stand as mute testimony to this fact. But in late years no money has been realized on the grounds and buildings, which were a heritage of earlier generations, have fallen into disrepair and each year the debt has been increased instead of lessened.

The fair board is bound and determined to do away with indiscriminate passing of persons at the gate. When a man who claims to be a representative from another county fair appears at the gate and asks permission, he will be requested to lay down a quarter for admission and the ticket seller will give him a receipt for the admission fee. If the representative feels that he is entitled to admission as a courtesy of one fair management to another, he will have to see the secretary and get his signature to that effect. Then he may redeem the money at the gate.

Mr. Thomas urged the state fair board a few years ago to try out this policy and it worked with great success. Every person who appeared at the gate and asked admission on business or "to see a man," he or she was requested to pay fifty cents and get a ticket which was redeemable at a time punched on the ticket. The first day this plan was tried out, six hundred persons who bought such tickets never redeemed them and the fair was $300 better off than it was. Last year the state fair made $10,000 and each year it is increasing its earnings by doing away with passes.

Because many new ideas are to be worked out at the fair this year, chief of which is the night fair, it is felt by the board that the fair should make a little money instead of following the precedent of past years. The presence of Governor

APPEAL FOR ARBITRATION

General Manager of Western Railroads Take Action Today.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., July 17.—Appeal by the western railroads for federal mediation to prevent a great strike of 80,000 employees was made when the general managers met today. The employees refused to join with the general managers for an appeal for mediation stating that the railroads had refused to observe ruling of the arbitration board.

WANTS POSSESSION OF ITS PROPERTY

I. & C. Brings Suit Against C. J. Bickhart, Owner of Flour Mill and Asks $500 Damages.

FOLLOWS SUIT BY BICKHART

Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, has filed suit against Christopher J. Bickhart, who at present is operating a mill in South Morgan street along the mill race that the traction company claims as a part of their property. The complaint asks to recover possession of property and damages is demanded in the sum of $500.

The complaint follows a suit filed this week by Bickhart against Owen L. Carr and James White in which he alleges that he was defrauded when he purchased the property, and demands $14,000 damages. In that complaint Bickhart states that the titles to the transaction were never recorded by Carr and now the I. & C. states that Bickhart is on their property and alleges that he unlawfully keeps the plaintiff out of possession of it.

FIRST COAT OF OIL IS COMPLETED

Another Application Will be Made in Center of Street or Where Travel is Greatest Shortly.

ABOUT 60,000 GALLONS USED

The Indiana Road Preserving company, which has the contract for oiling the streets of the city, has placed the first coat of oil in every street in the city that was to be oiled under the general improvement resolution as passed by the city council. Between fifty-five and sixty thousand gallons of oil were required for the work. The oil has been placed on the streets in a very satisfactory manner and the company is well pleased with the work and the praise they have received.

The second coat will be placed on the streets in a week or ten days. The second coat will be placed only on the center of the streets or where the traffic is the heaviest. The company will also put another coat of oil on the road leading to the fair grounds and the oil on the road will be widened.

Mrs. Ed Kelley and Miss Celia Costello, who are ill, were improved today.

Born this morning to the wife of Charles Bales in East Ninth street, a nine pound boy.

PLAYGROUND TO BE INSTALLED

Program Arranged at Meeting Yesterday Afternoon to Locate it in City Park at Once.

MAY BE READY IN FEW WEEKS

Mrs. J. D. Case is Elected President and Mrs. Will M. Sparks, Secretary—Other Officers.

According to a policy outlined at the meeting of women and others interested in the proposed playground, held in the court house yesterday afternoon, the playground will be equipped and in operation in the city park in two or three weeks and a paid supervisor will have been employed by that time.

A constitution and by-laws framed at a meeting of the leaders among the women Wednesday afternoon were submitted to the meeting yesterday afternoon and passed without a change.

Mrs. J. D. Case was elected president of the association which will be in charge of the playgrounds. Mrs. L. L. Allen was elected vice-president, Mrs. Will M. Sparks was chosen for secretary and Mrs. Owen Kincaid was the choice of the meeting for treasurer.

These four officials, together with three other persons who were named yesterday afternoon, will form the executive committee. The three remaining members of the committee are Ralph Payne, J. H. Scholl and Mrs. Louis C. Lambert.

After the meeting had approved and adopted the constitution and by-laws, J. D. Case was appointed the agent to collect the subscriptions which have been made to equip and support the proposed playground. Mr. Case passed the subscription paper and willingly consented to collect the money.

A committee was appointed to get bids on apparatus and buy all necessary equipment as soon as possible. The committee has already begun its work. Requests for bids on all sorts of equipment have been sent to three firms making such equipment and answers are expected in a few days.

The committee and officers expect that the playground apparatus may be installed within two or three weeks and that the playground may be enjoyed for at least a month or a month and a half the latter part of the summer. By the time the playground is ready for opening, it is expected that a supervisor will have been employed.

Outfits for boys and girls that are to be found on the most up-to-date playgrounds will be purchased. There will be teeters, slides, swings and all other sorts of instruments that will amuse the children.

One of the objections found to the city park was that there would be no way of providing water there. The opponents of the park location said that was one of the chief attractions of a playground. But the association now in charge is determined to have water, and it is announced that a wading pool will be installed. It is thought a cheap cement enclosure can be arranged that will fit the purpose.

It was the sense of the meeting that the playground should be located in the city park. That seems to be the only suitable location inside the city limits, it was pointed out, and if the grounds were located outside the city, the association could never expect any assistance from the school city in the future.

WILL CONSIDER ASSEMBLY HERE

Before Arranging For Next Year's Chautauqua, Connersville Will Investigate Rush County's

COMPARISON OF TWO MADE

Important Point Omitted That Independent Chautauqua Can Get Whatever Talent it Wants.

Information is contained in an article in the Connersville News that Rush county's independent chautauqua will be considered by the chautauqua committee of the Connersville Commercial Club before arrangements are made for the chautauqua there next year.

Connersville citizens turned down the offer of the Redpath Lyceum bureau at the close of the chautauqua last Sunday when the Redpath people said the price of season tickets would have to be raised to $2.50 next year. The Redpath bureau has had one of its circuit chautauquas at Connersville for two years, but they have not been altogether satisfactory.

The Connersville News compares the two methods, but omits the most important points, the fact that under the operations of the independent chautauqua, the local committee has the right to select its talent, which is a distinct advantage over the circuit chautauqua where the bureau serves up whatever it chooses and the local committee has to accept it. If the committee knew of some talent it should like to have, it would be impossible to get unless it were under the direction of the bureau giving the chautauqua. The News says:

Just now, when the Commercial Club has resolved to stand good for a Chautauqua of some kind next year, a natural interest inheres in Rushville's chautauqua. Its event will begin on Sunday, August second, and last to and including August ninth, eight days. In those eight days morning, afternoon and evening programs of great variety will be given. Attractions such as Strickland W. Gillilan, Weber's military band, Booker T. Washington, Lincoln McConnell and the Schuman Quintet will appear. How well the programs collectively will compare with those just heard in Connersville remains to be judged. It is certain that Rushville's chautauqua plans differs entirely from that of Connersville.

Rushville selects its own chautauqua talent. It has one hundred men, each of whom pledges himself to ten season chautauqua tickets, at $1.50 each. These tickets are sold at the price they paid for them.

After they are gone other season tickets can be had for $2 apiece. But the guarantee insures the chautauqua $1,500 in cash, and it happens that several hundred dollars are usually taken in in single admissions. Out of its earnings the Rushville chautauqua management has been able to build a huge coliseum, seat it permanently and surround it pleasantly. It is more like a picnic ground than a theatre, and in that respect conforms more nearly to the original chautauqua idea than did the two events in Connersville.

It is to be seen that, whereas the bureau arrangement, as followed here, relieves the local committee of a mass of work and worry, Rushville's plan gives the Rushville committee both those commodities, and calls for a lot of activity.

Connersville's lack of any satisfactory place for a chautauqua sim-

BOY IS KILLED IN STORM

William Hill Dead and David Gurshua Shocked by Lightning.

The Hill boy's death was instantaneous. It is thought Gurshua will recover.

W.M. SHOWS SOME SIGN OF RELENTING

Although he Avoids Any Mention of "Seasonable Temperature," He Says it Will be Fair.

HUMIDITY ON THE JOB TODAY

The weather man showed signs of relenting today even though he made no mention of the temperatures. He has even dropped that old, familiar phrase "seasonable temperature." But he admits that it will be fair tonight and tomorrow, with the exception of the extreme southern part of Indiana. Rush county, as you may know, is not in the extreme southern part of Indiana, for which everyone should be thankful.

But Mr. Humidity was still with us today. He made his presence felt to an extreme degree today. The temperature was below ninety all day, but it seemed much warmer than that.

The temperature dropped fifteen degrees in three hours late yesterday afternoon from the effects of thunder showers in this vicinity. Storms passed all around Rush county, but nothing was damaged in this county.

MOTHER AND THREE CHILDREN ARE HURT

Mrs. Will Cole and Family Painfully Injured in Runaway South of Raleigh This Morning.

MOTHER IS HURT THE WORST

Mrs. Will Cole and three children, of near Raleigh, were painfully hurt this morning in a thrilling runaway, which occurred two miles south of Raleigh. Mrs. Cole and children were on their way to the home of Bert Myers where they intended to spend the day when the horse frightened at a motor truck.

The horse dashed to the side of the road and the buggy was upset in the ditch. The occupants were thrown out and all sustained many bruises and cuts. The buggy was demolished. Mrs. Cole was probably hurt worse than the two children, sustaining a badly bruised hip and shoulder.

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capp and family in North Perkins street will give a farewell pitch-in supper for them tonight on the beautiful lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Riggs. Mr. and Mrs. Capp and family will move to their new home at the corner of Main and Fourth streets next week.

United States Expects Carranza to Take Hold on Reins in Mexico by That Time at Least.

AGREES TO CARBAJAL TERMS

Demands, However, Amnesty For Men Who Fought Under Huerta —New President Will Retire.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 17.—The United States expects Carranza to take over the Mexican government early next week. This government will agree to Carbajal's terms but demands amnesty for the men who fought under Huerta. Many telegrams and messages were exchanged today by Consul Silliman and General Carranza.

Carbajal, the successor to General Huerta as provisional president, has advised the United States Government informally that he intended to retire in favor of the Constitutionalist chief.

Mr. Carbajal wishes only that a general amnesty be proclaimed and protection given the property of those who opposed the Constitutionalist.

This statement of the attitude of Huerta's successor, together with the announcement from Monterey that Carranza was willing to enter into negotiations with Carbajal relative to the transfer of authority at Mexico City, was regarded here as particularly assuring a cessation of hostilities and the restoration of peace in Mexico.

The views of Mr. Carbajal was explained in detail to Secretary Bryan by Jose Castellot, former member of the Mexican Senate, who called at the State Department with a personal telegram which he had received through the Mexican Embassy.

It was the first communication between the American Government and the Carbajal administration. The communication, addressed to Mr. Castellot, a personal friend of the new President, was as follows:

"I have just taken the oath of office as President of the republic. Generals Huerta and Blanquet departed Wednesday for Europe. I desire to make it known with emphasis that my only purpose is to facilitate a solution of the grave problems which weighs upon our country.

"I have not the slightest ambition for myself and merely wish to terminate the internal conflict of our country. Please give me your impressions of the situation in Washington. Francisco Carbajal."

This message Mr. Castellot had

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by

WHEN the Men Left Town" is a side splitting comedy that is particularly apropos at this time of suffragette uprisings. Of course the men win out in the end.

Marguerite Courtot, although the youngest star in moving pictures, is also one of the cleverest. She has taken some of the most difficult parts in motion picture history and handled them to perfection.

Lottie Blair Parker's "Under Southern Skies," that famous old play, will soon be seen in motion pictures. The producing will be done on a mammoth scale.

Victoria Forde, the pretty seventeen-year-old leading woman, can swim, ride, shoot, play billiards, drive an automobile, paint pictures and operate a telegrapher's key. She is practicing ventriloquism and expects to be adept soon in that also.

Laura Oakley, one of the best known comedy actresses on the photo-play stage and formerly mayor of Universal City, Cal., will soon be seen again in Universal pictures. After a vacation of almost three months Miss Oakley has returned to the west coast studios of the company with the declaration that she is ready for work.

In "The Basket Habit" Mr. Clifford brings home a very hungry and very important business acquaintance, but the new colored maid has removed the contents of the refrigerator to her basket. Eddie, hitherto frowned upon by the Clifffords, wins their everlasting gratitude and their daughter by discovering all important basket.

In "Somebody's Sister" an ambitious young man and his sister from the country meet with trials in a big city and retreat wildly to the rural region for peace. An interesting and well constructed drama.

MADERO'S ASSASSINS WANTED

Washington, July 17.—The United States has demanded that Carranza safeguard his foes. Those guilty of crime against the nation may be punished without interference of this nation, but there must be no wholesale campaign of assassination simply because the cause has triumphed. This became known today.

Carranza has told Silliman he does not intend to punish the rank and file of Huerta's army but has refused to say whether he will hang the high officials. Constitutionalists representatives here declared today that those involved in the slaying of Madero would be executed if caught and long jail sentences would be given the minor actors in that tragedy and that the enlisted force not be punished. They said any report that there would be wholesale butchering was unfounded.

NOT VERY ENCOURAGING.

Shelbyville Republican: John Marshall and Orville Gardner spent Tuesday in Rush county on business. Mr. Marshall says that the Rush county crops look poorer this year than they have for several years, and that they do not nearly equal even the poor crops of this county. He said that J. T. Thomas had the best wheat so far, with an average of twenty-three bushels to the acre, but that the county average would be about nine or ten bushels.

(By United Press.)

Bloomington, Ind., July 17.—Charges were preferred today with the state board of pharmacy at Indianapolis against H. G. Morris, L. J. Murdoch and J. T. It is said that those making the charges have evidence to prove their contentions that the local drug stores have been selling whiskey contrary to the law.

Self Expert Says he Sees no Relief From High Prices.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 17.—Dr. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal husbandry of the department of agriculture and acknowledged beef expert, said today he could see no relief from the high cost of beef. "The high prices are undoubtedly caused by the scarcity of beef cattle and there is little prospect of increasing the supply," he said.

The newly installed officers of the Pocahontas entertained at the hall last night after the regular meeting. Refreshments were served.

THAT SUNDAY RUSH

A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel unfit for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the Brewery-Express Wagons.

In its Wednesday night's issue, the Daily Jacksonian prints an editorial news story on the front page which is in effect that express wagons are being converted into brewery wagons in Rushville under "dry" conditions.

There is an old adage that some one has coined, that persons living in glass houses should throw no stones or they will get glass in their eyes. After reading the article on the front page Wednesday, or any front page article on any other day, the reader may turn to page three and see in a paid advertisement in large, glaring black letters, "WINTER'S GOOD JOHN HAUK AND BERG-HOFF BOTTLED BEERS IN PINTS OR QUARTS."

If the Jacksonian or any other person has any faith in the Jacksonian's advertisement accomplishing what the advertisers pay for it to do, the Jacksonian owners as well as everyone else know that they are contributing their part to create a condition that is averse to the will of a majority of the voters of the city.

The Jacksonian, then, is in small business moralizing on alleged illegal sale of liquor in a "dry" town when it is doing its share to make that sale as big as possible. The Jacksonian's arguments, from this viewpoint, will have about as much effect with Rushville people as water does on a duck's back. The Republican will not accept liquor advertisements while the city is "dry." It expects to adhere to that policy. Anything contrary is defeating the will of the people.

The Jacksonian makes some sort of an assertion about there being "thirty or forty federal licenses granted to its citizens to sell intoxicating liquors." That is enlightening, indeed. If the Jacksonian is aware of any illegal liquor sales, then it behooves the Jacksonian, in order to play the part of the good citizen that it pretends to be, to inform the officers of such violations and assist in obtaining convictions. But all pretensions of the Jacksonian to that effect are rendered null and appear hypocritical when the casual reader glances on page three and reads the beer advertisement.

There is no law which prevents the shipment of liquor into dry territory so long as the territory dry is any unit smaller than a state. Liquor will be obtained in some degree as long as it is manufactured, but it is the contention of temperance people that less liquor is consumed under "dry" conditions than under "wet." This appears to be very logical in the face of the fact that under "dry" conditions there are no saloons which are open seventeen hours a day and extend a mute invitation to everyone who passes to take a drink.

The Jacksonian, in its editorial news story, reprints some of the canter brewers' and distillers' arguments that more liquor is consumed in a "dry" territory than a "wet" territory, all of which appears to be a waste of breath. Such arguments appear ludicrous because if such was the case, every liquor dealer in the United States would be as "dry" as a bone and there would be no question about subsequent local option elections.

Apparently trying to make amends for its foolish statements of the night before, the Jacksonian last night had an editorial in the right place in which it warmed up to the temperance people considerably.

Middle West Straws.

Chicago correspondence to the Cincinnati Enquirer shows encouraging prospects for Republican success in the fall election and the trend in the middlewest states, as elsewhere, of former Progressives aligning themselves with the Republican party.

State Senator Charles F. Hurlburgh has announced his candidacy for congressman from the fifteenth district in opposition to Representative E. J. King. Both men have served eight years in the Illinois state legislature and have been leaders. King stayed with the Republican party two years ago and has a strong following, but Hurlburgh followed the Big Moose from Oyster Bay. He saw his mistake some time ago and has reaffiliated with his old party.

The Galesburg Evening Mail, which has been the official Bull Moose organ in the fifteenth Illinois district, has returned to the G. O. P. fold and is appealing to all Republicans who wandered away in 1912 to return and help restore the party to its former power. Robert A. Chandler, its manager, who was Progressive state committeeman, is also back. The remnant of the party in the district insists that a Progressive candidate for congress will be nominated, but with its official organ and two of its chief leaders back, there seems but slight chance.

Republican orators will not lack material in their campaigns this year. In the East they can point to idle looms in the cotton factories. In the Middle West they will find steel mills and other industries closed or operating on reduced time. In the South the sugar planters and their employees are deserting the Democratic party. In all directions the railroads, the largest employers of labor, have reduced forces and otherwise economized to the breaking point. Farmers will want to know about the tariff, which admits the Canadian products free of duty and cuts down their profits, but which brings no return in the way of cheaper bread or the things they buy with the proceeds of their crops. The 40,000 Illinois miners who are unable to get employment will be anxious for an explanation of why factories are closed at a time when they should be running full blast.

In California the cities fruit growers have a complaint that will be heard clear across the continent before the next national election. Changes in the tariff law have inflicted heavy losses upon the growers of citrus fruits and sugar beets. Growers of oranges and lemons in Italy can get their product into the New York market and other Eastern markets at a cost less than the transportation rate from California to the Atlantic seaboard. The reduction of the tariff on sugar has already put a damper on the beet-sugar industry, and this will be more seriously felt in one or two years hence.

The failure of the oldest and one of the largest dry goods houses in the country, whose assets shrank $1,000,000 a day because of the tariff changes, and the failure of numerous banks and industrial concerns will also be topics upon which Democratic spellbinders will be quizzed when they ask that their Congressmen be returned.

Washington, July 17.—The department of justice will file its dissolution suit against the New Haven road within a few days, was the announcement today when word came that the directors would stand pat on their refusal to comply with the law calling for the sale of Boston & Maine stock.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prohibited local remedies, and consequently failing to cure with any treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is a very effective remedy. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case if fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonial.

"For the East is East and the West is West, and never the Twain shall meet," wrote Kipling. However the East and West are scheduled to meet in Rushville tomorrow for on that date the Young Buffalo Wild West, Vernon C. Seaver's Hippodrome and Col. Cummings' Far East will present a panorama of features and events from the five continents. From the program it is apparent that the promise that these shows condense the world into one exhibition will be literally fulfilled.

The addition of the Hippodrome to this well known aggregation of amusement enterprises this year, makes an epoch in the annals of the tented show business. The Hippodrome program presents the last word in life risking sports and deeds of almost incredible skill.

Hundreds of cowboys, cowgirls, Arabs, Cossacks, vaqueros and representatives of all riding peoples will compete in feats of horsemanship that could be seen nowhere else than in an exhibition of this sort. Clad in native costumes, they will present a truly remarkable sight as the swirling crowds of hosemen tear around the great arena at break neck speed.

The program is full of special features. Annie Laurie peerless wing and rifle shot will demonstrate her right to the title of champion of the world at each performance. The Etta Myers' Quartette, consisting of a good looking girl, a midget pony, an intellectual dog and Tiny Muggins, the smallest and most impudent elephant in the world, will put on an act that it is promised is entirely new.

Eldridge's Elephants is an animal act imported from England only this year. Another specialty number is the work of Captain Hardin's Spanish Cadets, a company of twenty Castilian beauties trained by Captain Hardin to the fine point of profecion in military drills and the manual of arms.

No exhibition would be complete without something in a lighter vein. "The Bounding Hayrack," "The Penobscot Rubes," "The Taximeter," and "The Dance of the Jungle" are guaranteed to be laugh compilers that no one can resist. A number of other comedy acts are billed.

Over six hundred people are carried with the combined shows. Among the performers are included representatives of more than twenty nations and tribes.

BIG OPERATORS
GAIN CONTROL

Gradually Drive Little Fellow From Business According to Mine Workers Secretary.

PROCESS OF ELIMINATION

Believes That Solution Will Come in Government Ownership—Railroads Take Lead.

(By United Press.)

Springfield, Ill., July 17.—"Big coal operators in the state of Illinois are slowly driving the little fellows out of business; thousands of miners are being made idle while the process of eliminating the small operator is going on, and the end will eventually be government ownership of the coal mines."

This was the statement today by Secretary-Treasurer Duncan McDonald of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers of America. The evolution from the day of small individual operators to the day of government ownership has been going on for many years and will require many more years," McDonald said, but the government ownership is bound to come, and when it comes it will relieve present suffering.

"When mining was started in Illinois, it was promoted by small individual operators," said McDonald. "Each of these men owned a mine in the thin vein districts of northern and central Illinois. Twenty years ago the big field of Southern Illinois were opened. The veins were thick and of the finest quality. There was a growing demand for coal for factory and transportation purpose.

The factories and railroads owned by big organizations of capital sought these rich deposits as adjuncts to their industries. The final result is that these big concerns now control nearly all the rich fields of Southern Illinois and the richest fields of Central Illinois, notably those along the Big Four and Northwestern railroads, northwest of St. Louis and south of Springfield.

"Some of these railroad own a big mine; some of them own several. In all cases the mines are equipped with the finest modern machinery and operated on a large scale. The output is produced at a cost of much below that of the yield of the older, smaller mines. The result is that the big mines supply about all the demand. The smaller mines are working a half-day or a day to the week.

"The situation was been growing more acute for several months, until now many of the smaller companies are almost bankrupt. Some of them have suspended and the miners are idle. A few new mines are being opened on the larger scale, but while the change is going on thousands of men and their families are bound to suffer. Our organization ought to have $50,000,000 to care for the families of those idle miners. But of course, we won't get it.

"State legislation to prevent the sinking of any new mines probably would be the simplest remedy, if we could get it. But there doesn't seem to be any good way to say to a man that he may not enter business if he wants to, whether he mines or shines shoes. The waste of the changing process is going to be enormous. All these idle and near-idle mines contain large deposits of coal and the closing of more small mines will mean the loss of millions in mining machinery and unmined coal. The end will come when the government takes over the mines. I can't say how soon that will come, but I can't see anything nearer."

MANY OF THE NEW DESIGNS INDICATE A RETURN OF PLAIN, SIMPLE LINES

It is predicted that simplicity will reign supreme in the fashion world by the end or before the end of the season. It has often been noted that a season of extremes is usually followed by one of plain, simple ideas.

The frock of white gabardine shown in Number 6364, is an unusually plain but highly attractive model for summer wear; it is an Empire dress, closing in the back and having a V-necked peasant bodice. The deep princess yoke over which is draped a slightly gathered girdle is a unique feature and the inverted V at the bottom of the skirt is sufficient trimming.

CREDIT GIVEN TO TEACHERS

Success of Sunday School at Richmond Due Largely to Obeying Orders Issued by Pastor.

CUT OUT CARDS AND DANCING

Just Won Contest Over Marion—Average Enrollment For Six Weeks Was 764.

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., July 17.—When the Rev. R. C. Leonard told members of the Central Christian church three months ago that all Sunday school teachers who played cards and danced must hand in their resignations forthwith or desist from these amusements, the congregation sat up in the pews and wondered how many teachers would be left in the school.

"We cannot be a power in the community and have within our own fold, instructors of the young who indulge in questionable amusements," explained the pastor. "The issue is plain, either the teachers will eliminate card playing and dancing, or I will replace them."

The teachers held a meeting and decided to be church people in practice as well as in theory.

Three months have passed. The Sunday school enrollment was 140 when the edict was issued. Last Sunday the record showed an average enrollment of 764 for the last six weeks, and the school celebrated a victory over the Marion, Ind., Christian Sunday school with which it had held a contest for new scholars in the last four weeks.

The Central Christian Sunday school, with more than 800 pupils present last Sunday, holds the distinction of being the largest in any city of Indiana with a population of 25,000.

Asked the reason for the phenomenal success of his school, the Rev. Mr. Leonard attributed it mainly to the emphasis he places on a thorough consecration of the teachers. He believes that unless a teacher leads an exemplary Christian life, which eliminated card playing, theater going and carding he is unfit to instruct the young in morals.

"Give me pious God fearing young men and women as teachers and I know the church will go ahead," observed the Rev. Mr. Leonard. "The future of the congregation is conditioned by the Sunday school, and if its leaders are tango artists and not Bible students, bridge whist specialists and not Scripture experts, there is no hope for true spiritual and numerical growth in the church."

The Rev. Mr. Leonard has been in Richmond since April, 1913. In that time, he has taken a small band of members, holding services in a hall, and welded them into a body that recently dedicated a tabernacle whose seating capacity is 1,500. He has earned the title of being the most aggressive preacher in Richmond.

His constituency is mainly from the working class. For them he has a vigorous message, and they have responded to the appeal. The Rev. Mr. Leonard is a native of Missouri, tall, rough featured, with strong facial lines. He says he cares nothing for social life, excepting when it brings him into contact with the workers of Richmond.

C. S. LEE FILES SUIT FOR BACK SALARY

Former Rushville Man Asserts he Was Discharged by Federal Baseball Club Management.

HE HAD SEASON CONTRACT

Clifford S. Lee, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, yesterday brought suit against the Indianapolis Federal League baseball team for $675, alleging that amount is due him under contract of employment, which he says was broken by the defendant. Lee alleges that on April 8, 1914, J. Edward Krause, president of the club, verbally employed him at a salary of $150 a month for the baseball season ending Oct. 9, 1914. Lee was to act as publicity agent and road secretary for the team. On June 15, the complaint states Lee was discharged without cause and regardless of his contract.

The complaint says that Lee agreed to give his entire time to the work and his duties were to write articles and place them in newspapers, the "stories" to be of interest to baseball fans, and incidentally to advertise the virtues and successes of the Indianapolis team. Whenever the team was on the road Lee's duties were to accompany it as secretary. He says that since he was discharged he has made every effort to get other employment, but has been unsuccessful. He asks judgment for the salary which would have been paid him had he been retained by the club management until the end of the season.

All the provisions have been purchased and a cook has been employed. At present it is expected that at least twenty boys will go with the camping party. A meeting will be held next Tuesday night, the night before the camp opens, at which time the boys will receive final instructions. C. E. Waldon, former scoutmaster, has been invited to attend the camp and will probably be present on Sunday.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty of water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN STARTED

Woman's Franchise League of Indiana Begins Fight in Favor of Constitutional Convention.

DODGER CONTAINS REASONS

Women Suffrage, Short Ballot, Home Rule For Cities And Many Other Things Mentioned.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 17.—The Woman's Franchise League of Indiana has begun its active campaign in favor of a constitutional convention. With something less than four months intervening, the issue for and against a constitutional convention to be decided at the November election is becoming clearer.

The Franchise league has printed a dodger and has circulated it broadcast over Indiana. It contains the following points:

The Democrats have said Indiana needs a new constitution—Governor Marshall's constitution of 1911; 24 amendments adopted by the 1912 legislature as proposed by Senator Stotsenburg; bill calling for the vote of the people on C. C. at the election of 1914.

Republicans, Progressives, Socialist and Prohibitionists have said so in their state platforms."

The women then gave their reasons why a new constitution is needed. Among them are the following:

Because: The present constitution is too long and not sufficiently flexible; the original constitution is outgrown; our amendment provision is almost prohibitive; constitutional changes should come from the people, not the legislatures; because our present system of taxation is unfair and inequitable, bearing most heavily on those least able to bear it."

Far down in the "because" list is the woman suffrage reason. The dodger states that the constitution should include suffrage for women. They also give the reason of the short ballot, home rule for cities and the demand that the unnaturalized foreigner "shall not continue to vote."

The dodger gives the necessary information on the convention, explaining that the vote will be taken Nov. 3, 1914, and that if the question carried there will be a special election of delegates on a non-partisan ballot March 2, 1915. It ends as follows:

"If 700,000 votes are cast at the election, 350,000 favorable votes must be cast in order that the measure may carry."

Ralston here the opening day is expected to bring a large crowd. On that day there will be a fox chase for the amusement of the governor and the crowd. There will also be another fox chase on Friday.

A free attraction for the day fair and another for the night fair is yet to be arranged for. An aviator wants to come here, but the board does not think this is as good an attraction as it once was and will probably find something which will fill the bill better.

On Wednesday night the free attractions will be a company of women aerobats who will perform feats on a vehicle drawn by horses in front of the grand stand. There will also be a pony show Wednesday night. Thursday night there will be a pretentious display of fireworks, and if a suitable attraction can not be obtained for Friday night, the fireworks will be repeated then.

The better babies contest, which is a brand new idea for the Rush county fair, will arouse a lot of interest. The preliminary examination of babies will take place at the Graham school Wednesday of the week before the fair under plans already made public. Then the prizes will be awarded Thursday morning of fair week at ten-thirty o'clock in the grand stand.

Many other unusual things for the Rush county fair have been arranged. There will be a barrel race Thursday and Friday. F. E. Wollcott, the druggist, will pay the prizes in this race. For as many entrants as there are, there will be suspended barrels by the middle from a pole. The entrants will start fifty feet one side of the barrels and the person who gets to a point fifty feet the other side of the barrel first, after having crawled through one of them, will win the prize.

Then there will be a mule race, watermelon contest, potato race and other freak contests. A stock parade of all stock contesting for premiums will be held on the big race track Tuesday while Governor Ralston is here. This is a feature of the fair which has been dropped in recent years. The premium stock parade will be held on Friday as usual.

Superintendents of departments will be asked this year to take active charge of their departments and stand responsible for them being filled by stock. The superintendents are requested to correspond with owners of show stock who follow the fares and offer them inducements to come here.

More attention will be paid this year to concessions. If the concession man can not pay his ground rent before the fair starts, he will not be given space. In this way the fair management hopes not to lose any money in this department as has been done in the past.

According to the Connersville News, a Mrs. Ralph Dubois, who stated she was married here, reported to the police there that her husband deserted her and succeeded in telling such a touching story that she was given free transportation to Hamilton, Ohio. The records here show that Herbert Dubois and Gladys Weiser were married by the Rev. C. M. Yoem on June 18. It is taken that this is the same couple referred to in the Connersville paper.

Mrs. Dubois told the Connersville police that her husband deserted her after they had been married three days. She gave her age here as nineteen but told the police there that she was only sixteen. In applying for a license the couple stated that her parents lived near Glenwood on the Rush county side of the line. The young woman's story impressed the officers and she was sent to some relatives in Hamilton.

Secretary Bryan thanked Mr. Castellot for the information he brought, and told him that, while recognition would not be accorded Carbajal, the United States was amicably disposed toward him and would applaud his patriotic efforts to bring about peace in his country.

Mr. Castellot left the State Department in a happy mood, and promptly telegraphed the result of his conference to Mr. Carbajal.

Secretary Bryan himself was highly optimistic in the belief that peace at last was in sight in turbulent Mexico, and he told his friends he believed the policy of "watchful waiting" and patience had been a success.

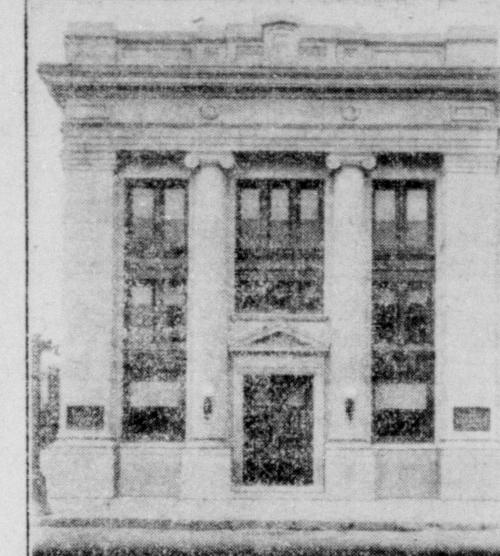

In order to assure a transfer of authority without further bloodshed or disturbance, however, the American Government began to use its good offices with General Carranza.

John R. Silliman, formerly American Consul at Saltillo and now personal representative of President Wilson there, received a long message from the State Department instructing him to urge upon General Carranza the belief of the United States that further fighting was useless on account of the readiness of the Carbajal government to surrender its power.

FAIR BOARD WILL WATCH CORNERS

By Trying Out New Ideas, it Hopes to get Away From Time-Honored Policy of Going in Debt.

NO PASSES WILL BE ISSUED

To Make Sure of This no Complimentary Tickets Will be Printed. Plans Already Made.

With a view to carrying out a policy of retrenchment so that the people of Rush county may have a better fair each year, the board of directors of the Rush County Fair association this year is going "to watch the corners," and the first step in this direction is the announcement of the secretary, J. Q. Thomas, that no passes will be given this year.

To make it sure that its orders will be carried out, the board is not going to have any complimentary tickets printed. This is in line with the attitude of the Indiana state fair which has found it very profitable since no complimentary tickets have been given out indiscriminately.

Mr. Thomas has been actively identified with the state fair management for years and it has always been one of his hobbies that the state fair would make money by doing away with passes completely. Under the different methods this year, the fair board hopes to reduce the usual deficiency to nothing. In the last few years, the fair has been increasing instead of reducing the fair debt. Last year $647 was added to the debt.

The present management of the fair sees no reason why the fair should not make money. When the fair was first started, it made money. The fair grounds and the buildings on it stand as mute testimony to this fact. But in late years no money has been realized on the grounds and buildings, which were a heritage of earlier generations, have fallen into disrepair and each year the debt has been increased instead of lessened.

The fair board is bound and determined to do away with indiscriminate passing of persons at the gate. When a man who claims to be a representative from another county, appears at the gate and asks permission, he will be requested to lay down a quarter for admission and the ticket seller will give him a receipt for the admission fee. If the representative feels that he is entitled to admission as a courtesy of one fair management to another, he will have to see the secretary and get his signature to that effect. Then he may redeem the money at the gate.

Mr. Thomas urged the state fair board a few years ago to try out this policy and it worked with great success. Every person who appeared at the gate and asked admission on business or "to see a man," he or she was requested to pay fifty cents and get a ticket which was redeemable at a time punched on the ticket. The first day this plan was tried out, six hundred persons who bought such tickets never redeemed them and the fair was $300 better off than it was. Last year the state fair made $10,000 and each year it is increasing its earnings by doing away with passes.

Because many new ideas are to be worked out at the fair this year, chief of which is the night fair, it is felt by the board that the fair should make a little money instead of following the precedent of past years. The presence of Governor

General Manager of Western Railroads Take Action Today.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., July 17.—Appeal by the western railroads for federal mediation to prevent a great strike of 80,000 employees was made when the general managers met today. The employees refused to join with the general managers for an appeal for mediation stating that the railroads had refused to observe ruling of the arbitration board.

WANTS POSSESSION OF ITS PROPERTY

I. & C. Brings Suit Against C. J. Bickhart, Owner of Flour Mill and Asks $500 Damages.

FOLLOWS SUIT BY BICKHART

Charles L. Henry, president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Transportation company, has filed suit against Christopher J. Bickhart, who at present is operating a mill in South Morgan street along the toll race that the traction company claims as a part of their property. The complaint asks to recover possession of property and damages is demanded in the sum of $500.

The complaint follows a suit filed this week by Bickhart against Owen L. Carr and James White in which he alleges that he was defrauded when he purchased the property, and demands $14,000 damages. In that complaint Bickhart states that the titles to the transaction were never recorded by Carr and now the I. & C. states that Bickhart is on their property and alleges that he unlawfully keeps the plaintiff out of possession of it.

FIRST COAT OF OIL IS COMPLETED

Another Application Will be Made in Center of Street or Where Travel is Greatest Shortly.

ABOUT 60,000 GALLONS USED

The Indiana Road Preserving company, which has the contract for oiling the streets of the city, has placed the first coat of oil in every street in the city that was to be oiled under the general improvement resolution as passed by the city council. Between fifty-five and sixty thousand gallons of oil were required for the work. The oil has been placed on the streets in a very satisfactory manner and the company is well pleased with the work and the praise they have received.

The second coat will be placed on the streets in a week or ten days. The second coat will be placed only on the center of the streets or where the traffic is the heaviest. The company will also put another coat of oil on the road leading to the fair grounds and the oil on the road will be widened.

Mrs. Ed Kelley and Miss Celia Costello, who are ill, were improved today.

PLAYGROUND TO BE INSTALLED

Program Arranged at Meeting Yesterday Afternoon to Locate it in City Park at Once.

MAY BE READY IN FEW WEEKS

Mrs. J. D. Case is Elected President and Mrs. Will M. Sparks, Secretary—Other Officers.

According to a policy outlined at the meeting of women and others interested in the proposed playground, held in the court house yesterday afternoon, the playground will be equipped and in operation in the city park in two or three weeks and a paid supervisor will have been employed by that time.

A constitution and by-laws framed at a meeting of the leaders among the women Wednesday afternoon were submitted to the meeting yesterday afternoon and passed without a change.

Mrs. J. D. Case was elected president of the association which will be in charge of the playgrounds. Mrs. L. L. Allen was elected vice-president. Mrs. Will M. Sparks was chosen for secretary and Mrs. Owen Kincaid was the choice of the meeting for treasurer.

These four officials, together with three other persons who were named yesterday afternoon, will form the executive committee. The three remaining members of the committee are Ralph Payne, J. H. Scholl and Mrs. Louis C. Lambert.

After the meeting had approved and adopted the constitution and by-laws, J. D. Case was appointed the agent to collect the subscriptions which have been made to equip and support the proposed playground. Mr. Case passed the subscription paper and willingly consented to collect the money.

A committee was appointed to get bids on apparatus and buy all necessary equipment as soon as possible. The committee has already begun its work. Requests for bids on all sorts of equipment have been sent to three firms making such equipment and answers are expected in a few days.

The committee and officers expect that the playground apparatus may be installed within two or three weeks and that the playground may be enjoyed for at least a month or a month and a half the latter part of the summer. By the time the playground is ready for opening, it is expected that a supervisor will have been employed.

Outfits for boys and girls that are to be found on the most up-to-date playgrounds will be purchased. There will be teeter, slides, swings and all other sorts of instruments that will amuse the children.

One of the objections found to the city park was that there would be no way of providing water there. The opponents of the park location said that was one of the chief attractions of a playground. But the association now in charge is determined to have water, and it is announced that a wading pool will be installed. It is thought a cheap cement enclosure can be arranged that will fit the purpose.

It was the sense of the meeting that the playground should be located in the city park. That seems to be the only suitable location inside the city limits, it was pointed out, and if the grounds were located outside the city, the association could never expect any assistance from the school city in the future.

WILL CONSIDER ASSEMBLY HERE

Before Arranging For Next Year's Chautauqua, Connersville Will Investigate Rush County's

COMPARISON OF TWO MADE

Important Point Omitted That Independent Chautauqua Can Get Whatever Talent it Wants.

Information is contained in an article in the Connersville News that Rush county's independent chautauqua will be considered by the chautauqua committee of the Connersville Commercial Club before arrangements are made for the chautauqua there next year.

Connersville citizens turned down the offer of the Redpath Lyceum bureau at the close of the chautauqua last Sunday when the Redpath people said the price of season tickets would have to be raised to $2.50 next year. The Redpath bureau has had one of its circuit chautauquas at Connersville for two years, but they have not been altogether satisfactory.

The Connersville News compares the two methods, but omits the most important points, the fact that under the operations of the independent chautauqua, the local committee has the right to select its talent, which is a distinct advantage over the circuit chautauqua where the bureau serves up whatever it chooses and the local committee has to accept it. If the committee knew of some talent it should like to have, it would be impossible to get unless it were under the direction of the bureau giving the chautauqua. The News says:

Just now, when the Commercial Club has resolved to stand good for a Chautauqua of some kind next year, a natural interest inheres in Rushville's chautauqua. Its event will begin on Sunday, August second, and last to and including August ninth, eight days. In those eight days morning, afternoon and evening programs of great variety will be given. Attractions such as Strickland W. Gilligan, Weber's military band, Booker T. Washington, Lincoln McConnell and the Schuman Quintet will appear. How well the programs collectively will compare with those just heard in Connersville remains to be judged. It is certain that Rushville's chautauqua plans differs entirely from that of Connersville.

Rushville selects its own chautauqua talent. It has one hundred men, each of whom pledges himself to ten season chautauqua tickets, at $1.50 each. These tickets are sold at the price they paid for them.

After they are gone other season tickets can be had for $2 apiece. But the guarantee insures the chautauqua $1,500 in cash, and it happens that several hundred dollars are usually taken in in single admissions. Out of its earnings the Rushville chautauqua management has been able to build a huge coliseum, seat it permanently and surround it pleasantly. It is more like a picnic ground than a theatre, and in that respect conforms more nearly to the original chautauqua idea than did the two events in Connersville.

It is to be seen that, whereas the bureau arrangement, as followed here, relieves the local committee of a mass of work and worry, Rushville's plan gives the Rushville committee both those commodities, and calls for a lot of activity.

Connersville's lack of any satisfactory place for a chautauqua sim-

BOY IS KILLED IN STORM

William Hill Dead and David Gurshua Shocked by Lightning.

(By United Press.) Bloomington, Ind., July 17.—Wm. Hill, age nine years, was killed by lightning and David Gurshua, an old man, was severely burned and shocked during the worst electrical and rain storm of the season here late yesterday afternoon. The Hill boy's death was instantaneous. It is thought Gurshua will recover.

Bloomington experienced the heaviest rain since the flood of March 25th, 1913. Two and a half inches of rain fell.

W.M. SHOWS SOME SIGN OF RELENTING

Although he Avoids Any Mention of "Seasonable Temperature," He Says it Will be Fair.

HUMIDITY ON THE JOB TODAY

The weather man showed signs of relenting today even though he made no mention of the temperatures. He has even dropped that old, familiar phrase "seasonable temperature."

But he admits that it will be fair tonight and tomorrow, with the exception of the extreme southern part of Indiana. Rush county, as you may know, is not in the extreme southern part of Indiana, for which everyone should be thankful.

But Mr. Humidity was still with us today. He made his presence felt to an extreme degree today. The temperature was below ninety all day, but it seemed much warmer than that.

The temperature dropped fifteen degrees in three hours late yesterday afternoon from the effects of thunder showers in this vicinity. Storms passed all around Rush county, but nothing was damaged in this county.

MOTHER AND THREE CHILDREN ARE HURT

Mrs. Will Cole and Family Painfully Injured in Runaway South of Raleigh This Morning.

MOTHER IS HURT THE WORST

Mrs. Will Cole and three children, of near Raleigh, were painfully hurt this morning in a thrilling runaway, which occurred two miles south of Raleigh. Mrs. Cole and children were on their way to the home of Bert Myers where they intended to spend the day when the horse frightened at a motor truck.

The horse dashed to the side of the road and the buggy was upset in the ditch. The occupants were thrown out and all sustained many bruises and cuts. The buggy was demolished. Mrs. Cole was probably hurt worse than the two children, sustaining a badly bruised hip and shoulder.

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capp and family in North Perkins street will give a farewell pitch-in supper for them tonight on the beautiful lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Riggs. Mr. and Mrs. Capp and family will move to their new home at the corner of Main and Fourth streets next week.

United States Expects Carranza to Take Hold on Reins in Mexico by That Time at Least.

AGREES TO CARBAJAL TERMS

Demands, However, Amnesty For Men Who Fought Under Huerta —New President Will Retire.

(By United Press.) Washington, July 17.—The United States expects Carranza to take over the Mexican government early next week. This government will agree to Carbal's terms but demands amnesty for the men who fought under Huerta. Many telegrams and messages were exchanged today by Consul Silliman and General Carranza.

Carbal, the successor to General Huerta as provisional president, has advised the United States Government informally that he intended to retire in favor of the Constitutionalist chief.

Mr. Carbal wishes only that a general amnesty be proclaimed and protection given the property of those who opposed the Constitutionalist.

This statement of the attitude of Huerta's successor, together with the announcement from Monterey that Carranza was willing to enter into negotiations with Carbal relative to the transfer of authority at Mexico City, was regarded here as particularly assuring a cessation of hostilities and the restoration of peace in Mexico.

The views of Mr. Carbal was explained in detail to Secretary Bryan by Jose Castellon, former member of the Mexican Senate, who called at the State Department with a personal telegram which he had received through the Mexican Embassy.

It was the first communication between the American Government and the Carbal administration. The communication, addressed to Mr. Castellon, a personal friend of the new President, was as follows:

I have just taken the oath of office as President of the republic. Generals Huerta and Blanquet departed Wednesday for Europe. I desire to make it known with emphasis that my only purpose is to facilitate a solution of the grave problems which weighs upon our country.

I have not the slightest ambition for myself and merely wish to terminate the internal conflict of our country. Please give me your impressions of the situation in Washington. Francisco Carbal.

This message Mr. Castellon explained meant that Mr. Carbal had

RULING PARTY IS GRIPPED BY FRIGHT

Fear Expressed Democrats Are Going Headlong Toward Disaster
Because of Jones Fight.

WILSON CHOICE WILL LOSE

Washington, July 17.—A peripatetic council meeting upon the immediate future of the Democratic party has resulted from the nomination of T. D. Jones, of Chicago, to be a member of the Federal Reserve Board. Administration forces are meeting here and there to discuss what can be done to force Jones's confirmation in face of the admitted fact that if a vote were taken at this time he would be defeated.

The recalcitrant Democrats are being made the target of this argument: The President is the leader of his party, and it is upon this record that the Democratic party must face the voters this fall. If the present agitation against Jones is continued the party will be placed in the position of indorsing the International Harvester Company, and in addition the President, as leader of his party, will be unshamed by the detest of Jones.

The cry of party solidarity has been raised to a higher pitch than at any time since the present Administration began. The Jones struggle has taken on the appearance of a political crisis of the first rank.

JUNE

Oh, the roses bloom so sweetly
And the song birds are in time
And the blossoms charm completely
In the gentle month of June!

But the summer always offers
To the cycles and the scatters
Certain very grave temptations
Unto hostile demonstrations.
And you hear dull threats ascending
Near the fences that need mending.
Various epithets come rattling
Like the contents of a Gatling.
And the talk, once somewhat huffy,
Gets more serious and huffy
As we hear of lethal carcases.
Barbadoes and strict embargoes.
Men with mild and mortal missions
Lose their lovely dispositions
As the warmth gets too infernal
To be mentioned in the journal.

Though we sing in strains prophetic
Of sweet perfumes 'neath the moon,
There is much that's impoetic
In the mystic month of June.

Identification Cards In Berlin Cabs.
London May Adopt Them.

A simple innovation to assist forgetful folks to recover articles left by them in public vehicles is announced from Berlin. In future every taxi and horse cab in the German capital will be provided with a little box filled with cards bearing the identification number of the vehicle. The traveler is requested to help himself from the box.

That the introduction in London of the same method for tracing lost property more quickly would not be out of place is shown by the fact that last year no fewer than $4,576 objects were found and deposited at Scotland Yard by drivers and conductors of public vehicles. The British climate is responsible for the fact that the largest number of these objects were umbrellas, of which 32,250 were lost and found. Next come grips and satchels, 10,164.

Now Comes the "Tango Foot."

Dr. Boehme of Berlin says he has discovered a new disease, the "tango foot." He attributes it to the extraordinary movements of the foot and ankle in executing the tango, maxixe and other new dances. Pains which resemble rheumatism develop in the calf of the leg, the shin and the ankle and increase until they often become paroxysmic.

WHEN the Men Left Town" is a side splitting comedy that is particularly apropos at this time of suffragette uprisings. Of course the men win out in the end.

Marguerite Courtot, although the youngest star in moving pictures, is also one of the cleverest. She has taken some of the most difficult parts in motion picture history and handled them to perfection.

Lottie Blair Parker's "Under Southern Skies," that famous old play, will soon be seen in motion pictures. The producing will be done on a mammoth scale.

Victoria Forde, the pretty seventeen-year-old leading woman, can swim, ride, shoot, play billiards, drive an automobile, paint pictures and operate a telegrapher's key. She is practicing ventriloquism and expects to be adept soon in that also.

THAT SUNDAY RUSH

A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel unfit for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the

Today—Reports Indefinite.

SEVERAL MINERS ARE SHOT

(By United Press.)

Fort Smith, Ark., July 17.—Union coal mine strikers and non-union men in Mammoth vein, east of here, have met in a serious clash, state reports reaching here today. Several miners were shot. Five and dynamite have done much damage to the mines. Wires are down but neighborhood camps were told of the trouble.

A telephone lineman who got within four miles of the camp reported that many wires were cut. He could hear terrific explosions and much shooting, he said. Huntington reported mines No. 1 and 4 were destroyed by fire and dynamite.

United States Today Makes This

Race to Carranza Who Will Assume Charge in Mexico.

MADERO'S ASSASSINS WANTED

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 17.—The United States has demanded that Francisco Madero be tried. These guilty or crime against the nation may be punished without interference of this nation, but there must be no wholesale campaign of assassination simply because the cause has triumphed, this became known today.

Carranza has told Silliman he does not intend to punish the rank and file of Madero's army but has refused to say whether he will hang the high officials. Constitutionalists' representatives here declared today that those involved in the killing of Madero would be executed if caught and long jail sentences would be given the culprits in that tragedy and that the enlisted force not be punished. They said any report that there would be wholesale butchering was unfounded.

NOT VERY ENCOURAGING.

Shelbyville Republican: John Marshall and Orville Gardner spent Tuesday in Rush county on business. Mr. Marshall says that the Rush county crops look poorer this year than they have for several years, and that they do not nearly equal even the poor crops of this county. He said that J. T. Thomas had the best wheat so far, with an average of twenty-three bushels to the acre, but that the county average would be about nine or ten bushels.

FOR ILLEGAL LIQUOR SALE

Charges Preferred Against Bloomington Druggists Today.

(By United Press.)

Bloomington, Ind., July 17.—Charges were preferred today with the state board of pharmacy at Indianapolis against H. G. Morris, L. J. Murdock and J. T. Gray, local druggists, for the illegal sale of liquor. It is said that those making the charges have evidence to prove their contentions that the local drug stores have been selling whiskey contrary to the law.

IT IS DUE TO SCARCITY

Self Expert Says he Sees no Relief From High Prices.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 17.—Dr. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal husbandry of the department of agriculture and acknowledged beef expert, said today he could see no relief from the high cost of beef. "The high prices are undoubtedly caused by the scarcity of beef cattle and there is little prospect of increasing the supply," he said.

Amusements

The Gem will show a Victor feature "Tollers of the Sea" for the first picture tonight. J. Warren Kerrigan and Vera Sisson are featured. It is a two reel picture and is said to be a dramatic production. The other is a Powers comedy entitled "The Adventures of Limburger and Schweitzer." Tomorrow matinee and night the Gem will show "Lucille Love," series No. 4. These pictures are becoming very popular, due no doubt to the great work of George Carney and Francis Ford. It is in this series that Miss Carney was obliged to ride into a pitfall which had been prepared by Francis Ford. The toll killed the horse she was riding and Miss Carney was stunned. It was not a show but the real thing.

The Princess will show a two reel feature "The Perils of the Sea" for the first picture tonight. Carley's Blackwell is featured. It is said to be a wonderful picture, one of the scenes showing a burning ship at sea and the rescuing of the panic stricken passengers. The other is a Lubin comedy entitled "With the Burglars Help."

Brewery-Express Wagons.

In its Wednesday night's issue, the Daily Jacksonian prints an editorial news story on the front page which to me effect that express wagons are being converted into brewery wagons in Rushville under "dry" conditions.

There is an old adage that some one is bound, that persons living in dry houses should throw no stones or they will get glass in their eyes. After reading the article on the front page Wednesday, or any front page article on any other day, the reader may turn to page three and see in a paid advertisement in large, glaring black letters, "WINTER'S GOOD JOHN HAUK AND BERGROFF BOTTLED BEERS IN PINTS OR QUARTS."

If the Jacksonian or any other person has any faith in the Jacksonian's advertisement accomplishing what the advertiser pay for it to do, the Jacksonian owners as well as everyone else know that they are contributing their part to create a condition that is averse to the will of a majority of the voters of the city.

The Jacksonian, then, is in small business moralizing on alleged illegal sale of liquor in a "dry" town when it is doing its share to make that sale as big as possible. The Jacksonian's arguments, from this viewpoint, will have about as much effect with Rushville people as water does on a duck's back. The Republican will not accept liquor advertisements while the city is "dry." It expects to adhere to that policy. Anything contrary is defeating the will of the people.

The Jacksonian makes some sort of an assertion about there being thirty or forty federal licenses granted to its citizens to sell intoxicating liquors." That is enlightening, indeed. If the Jacksonian is aware of any illegal liquor sales, then it behoves the Jacksonian, in order to play the part of the good citizen that it pretends to be, to inform the officers of such violations and assist in obtaining convictions. But all pretensions of the Jacksonian to that effect are rendered null and appear hypocritical when the casual reader glances on page three and reads the beer advertisement.

There is no law which prevents the shipment of liquor into dry territory so long as the territory dry is any unit smaller than a state. Liquor will be obtained in some degree as long as it is manufactured, but it is the contention of temperance people that less liquor is consumed under "dry" conditions than under "wet." This appears to be very logical in the face of the fact that under "dry" conditions there are no saloons which are open seventeen hours a day and extend a mate invitation to everyone who passes to take a drink.

The Jacksonian, in its editorial news story, reprints some of the craft brewers' and distillers' arguments that more liquor is consumed in a "dry" territory than a "wet" territory, all of which appears to be a waste of breath. Such arguments appear ludicrous because if such was the case, every liquor dealer in the United States would be as "dry" as a bone and there would be no question about subsequent local option elections.

Apparently trying to make amends for its foolish statements of the night before, the Jacksonian last night had an editorial in the right place in which it warned up to the temperance people considerably.

Middle West Straws.

Chicago correspondence to the Cincinnati Enquirer shows encouraging prospects for Republican success in the fall election and the trend in the middlewest states, as elsewhere, of former Progressives aligning themselves with the Republican party.

State Senator Charles F. Hurlburgh has announced his candidacy for congressman from the fifteenth district in opposition to Representative E. J. King. Both men have served eight years in the Illinois state legislature and have been leaders. King stayed with the Republican party two years ago and has a strong following, but Hurlburgh followed the Big Moose from Oyster Bay. He saw his mistake some time ago and has reaffiliated with his old party.

The Galesburg Evening Mail which has been the official Bull Moose organ in the fifteenth Illinois district, has returned to the G. O. P. fold and is appealing to all Republicans who wandered away in 1912 to return and help restore the party to its former power. Robert A. Chandler, its manager, who was Progressive state committeeman, is also back. The remainder of the party in the district insists that a Progressive candidate for congress will be nominated, but with its official organ and two of its chief leaders back, there seems but slight chance.

Republican orators will not lack material in their campaigns this year. In the East they can point to idle looms in the cotton factories. In the Middle West they will find steel mills and other industries closed or operating on reduced time. In the South the sugar planters and their employees are deserting the Democratic party. In all directions the railroads, the largest employers of labor, have reduced forces and otherwise economized to the breaking point. Farmers will want to know about the tariff, which admits the Canadian products free of duty and cuts down their profits, but which brings no return in the way of cheaper bread or the things they buy with the proceeds of their crops. The 40,000 Illinois miners who are unable to get employment will be anxious for an explanation of why factories are closed at a time when they should be running full blast.

In California the cities fruit growers have a complaint that will be heard clear across the continent before the next national election.

Changes in the tariff law have inflicted heavy losses upon the growers of citrus fruits and sugar beets. Growers of oranges and lemons in Italy can get their product into the New York market and other Eastern markets at a cost less than the transportation rate from California to the Atlantic seaboard. The reduction of the tariff on sugar has already put a damper on the beet-sugar industry, and this will be more seriously felt in one or two years hence.

The failure of the oldest and one of the largest dry goods houses in the country, whose assets shrank $1,000,000 a day because of the tariff changes, and the failure of numerous banks and industrial concerns will also be topics upon which Democratic spellbinders will be quizzed when they ask that their Congressmen be returned.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and people do not meddle with it, constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Tolson, is the only constitutional treatment on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Amusements

"For the East is East and the West is West, and never the Twain shall meet," wrote Kipling. However the East and West are scheduled to meet in Rushville tomorrow for on that date the Young Buffalo Wild West, Vernon C. Seaver's Hippodrome and Col. Cummins' Far East will present a panorama of features and events from the five continents. From the program it is apparent that the promise that these shows condense the world into one exhibition will be literally fulfilled.

The addition of the Hippodrome to this well known aggregation of amusement enterprises this year, makes an epoch in the annals of the tented show business. The Hippodrome program presents the last word in life risking sports and deeds of almost incredible skill.

Hundreds of cowboys, cowgirls, Arabs, Gypsies, vaqueros and representatives of all riding peoples will compete in feats of horsemanship that could be seen nowhere else than in an exhibition of this sort. Clad in native costumes, they will present a truly remarkable sight as the swirling crowds of horsemen tear around the great arena at break neck speed.

The program is full of special features. Annie Laurie peerless wing and rifle shot will demonstrate her right to the title of champion of the world at each performance. The Rita Myers' Quartette, consisting of a good looking girl, a midget pony, an intellectual dog and Tiny Muggins, the smallest and most impudent elephant in the world, will put on an act that it is promised is entirely new.

Elbridge's Elephants is an animal act imported from England only this year. Another specialty number is the work of Captain Hardin's Spanish Cadets, a company of twenty Castilian beauties trained by Captain Hardin to the fine point of perfection in military drills and the manual of arms.

No exhibition would be complete without something in a lighter vein. "The Bounding Haystack," "The Pendulum Rides," "The Taximeter," and "The Dance of the Jungle" are guaranteed to be laugh compilers that no one can resist. A number of other comedy acts are billed.

Over six hundred people are carried with the combined shows. Among the performers are included representatives of more than twenty nations and tribes.

BIG OPERATORS GAIN CONTROL

Gradually Drive Little Fellow From Business According to Mine Workers Secretary.

PROCESS OF ELIMINATION

Believes That Solution Will Come in Government Ownership—Railroads Take Lead.

(By United Press.)

Springfield, Ill., July 17.—Big coal operators in the state of Illinois are slowly driving the little fellows out of business; thousands of miners are being made idle while the process of eliminating the small operator is going on, and the end will eventually be government ownership of the coal mines.

This was the statement today by Secretary-Treasurer Duncan McDonald of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers of America. The evolution from the day of small individual operators to the day of government ownership has been going on for many years and will require many more years. McDonald said that the government ownership is bound to come, and when it comes it will relieve present suffering.

"When mining was started in Illinois, it was promoted by small individual operators," said McDonald. "One of these men owned a mine in the thin vein districts of northern and central Illinois. Twenty years ago the big field of Southern Illinois were opened. The veins were thick and of the finest quality. There was a growing demand for coal for factory and transportation purposes. The factories and railroads owned by big organizations of capital sought these rich deposits as adjuncts to their industries. The final result is that these big concerns now control nearly all the rich fields of Southern Illinois and the richest fields of Central Illinois, notably those along the Big Four and Northwestern railroads, northwest of St. Louis and south of Springfield.

"Some of these railroad own one big mine; some of them own several. In all cases the mines are equipped with the finest modern machinery and operated on a large scale. The output is produced at a cost of much below that of the yield of the older, smaller mines. The result is that the big mines supply about all the demand. The smaller mines are working a half-day or a day to the week.

"The situation was becoming more acute for several months, until now many of the smaller companies are almost bankrupt. Some of them have suspended and the miners are idle. A few new mines are being opened on the larger scale, but while the change is going on thousands of men and their families are bound to suffer. Our organization ought to have $50,000,000 to care for the families of those idle miners. But of course, we won't get it.

"State legislation to prevent the sinking of any new mines probably would be the simplest remedy, if we could get it. But there doesn't seem to be any good way to say to a man that he may not enter business if he wants to, whether he mines or shuns shoes. The waste of the changing process is going to be enormous. All these idle and near-idle mines contain large deposits of coal and the closing of more small mines will mean the loss of millions in mining machinery and unmined coal. The end will come when the government takes over the mines. I can't say how soon that will come, but I can't see anything nearer."

MANY OF THE NEW DESIGNS INDICATE A RETURN OF PLAIN, SIMPLE LINES

It is predicted that simplicity will reign supreme in the fashion world by the end or before the end of the season. It has often been noted that a season of extremes is usually followed by one of plain, simple ideas.

The frock of white gabardine shown in Number 8364, is an unusually plain but highly attractive model for summer wear; it is an Empire dress, closing in the back and having a V-necked peasant bodice. The deep princess yoke over which is draped a slightly gathered girdle is a unique feature and the inverted V at the bottom of the skirt is sufficient trimming.

Success of Sunday School at Richmond Due Largely to Obeying Orders Issued by Pastor.

CUT OUT CARDS AND DANCING

Just Won Contest Over Marion. Average Enrollment For Six Weeks Was 764.

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., July 17.—When the Rev. R. C. Leonard told members of the Central Christian church three months ago that all Sunday school teachers who played cards and danced must hand in their resignations forthwith or desist from these amusements, the congregation sat up in the pews and wondered how many teachers would be left in the school.

"We cannot be a power in the community and have within our own fold, instructors of the young who indulge in questionable amusements," explained the pastor. "The issue is plain, either the teachers will eliminate card playing and dancing, or I will replace them."

The teachers held a meeting and decided to be church people in practice as well as in theory.

Three months have passed. The Sunday school enrollment was 110 when the edict was issued. Last Sunday the record showed an average enrollment of 764 for the last six weeks, and the school celebrated a victory over the Marion, Ind., Christian Sunday school with which it had held a contest for new scholars in the last four weeks.

The Central Christian Sunday school, with more than 800 pupils present last Sunday, holds the distinction of being the largest in any city of Indiana with a population of 25,000.

Asked the reason for the phenomenal success of his school, the Rev. Mr. Leonard attributed it mainly to the emphasis he places on a thorough consecration of the teachers. He believes that unless a teacher leads an exemplary Christian life, which eliminated card playing, theater going and dancing, he is unfit to instruct the young in morals.

"Give me pious God fearing young men and women as teachers and I know the church will go ahead," observed the Rev. Mr. Leonard. "The future of the congregation is conditioned by the Sunday school, and if its leaders are Tango artists and not Bible students, bridge whist specialists and not Scripture experts, there is no hope for true spiritual and numerical growth in the church."

The Rev. Mr. Leonard has been in Richmond since April, 1913. In that time, he has taken a small band of members, holding services in a hall, and welded them into a body that recently dedicated a tabernacle whose seating capacity is 1,500. He has earned the title of being the most aggressive preacher in Richmond.

His constituency is mainly from the working class. For them he has a vigorous message, and they have responded to the appeal. The Rev. Mr. Leonard is a native of Missouri, tall, rough featured, with strong facial lines. He says he cares nothing for social life, excepting when it brings him into contact with the workers of Richmond.

C. S. LEE FILES SUIT FOR BACK SALARY

Former Rushville Man Asserts He Was Discharged by Federal Baseball Club Management.

HE HAD SEASON CONTRACT

Clifford S. Lee, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, yesterday brought suit against the Indianapolis Federal League baseball team for $675, alleging that amount is due him under contract of employment, which he says was broken by the defendant. Lee alleges that on April 8, 1914, J. Edward Krause, president of the club, verbally employed him at a salary of $150 a month for the baseball season ending Oct. 9, 1914. Lee was to act as publicity agent and road secretary for the team. On June 15, the complaint states Lee was discharged without cause and regardless of his contract.

The complaint says that Lee agreed to give his entire time to the work and his duties were to write articles and place them in newspapers, the "stories" to be of interest to baseball fans, and incidentally to advertise the virtues and successes of the Indianapolis team. Whenever the team was on the road Lee's duties were to accompany it as secretary. He says that since he was discharged he has made every effort to get other employment, but has been unsuccessful. He asks judgment for the salary which would have been paid him had he been retained by the club management until the end of the season.

BOY SCOUTS TO MEET TONIGHT

Final Arrangements For the Camp Which Will be Opened Next Wednesday at Webb's Ford.

WALDON MAY COME SUNDAY

A meeting of all the Boy Scouts, who intend to go camping, will be held tonight at seven o'clock at the Christian church. At the meeting tonight final arrangements for the camp, which will be held at Webb's Ford starting next Wednesday, will be made. L. B. Snelser and Carl Webb, who have been working on the plans for the camp, have completed their part of the work and many of the boys have contributed their dollar toward the upkeep of the camp. It is necessary that each boy give one dollar to the fund in order that the camp be a success.

All the provisions have been purchased and a cook has been employed. At present it is expected that at least twenty boys will go with the camping party. A meeting will be held next Tuesday night, the night before the camp opens, at which time the boys will receive final instructions. C. E. Waldon, former scoutmaster, has been invited to attend the camp and will probably be present on Sunday.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with Lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent Lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Woman's Franchise League of Indiana Begins Fight in Favor of Constitutional Convention.

DODGER CONTAINS REASONS

Women Suffrage, Short Ballot, Home Rule For Cities And Many Other Things Mentioned.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 17.—The Woman's Franchise League of Indiana has begun its active campaign in favor of a constitutional convention. With something less than four months intervening, the issue for and against a constitutional convention to be decided at the November election is becoming clearer.

The Franchise League has printed a dodger and has circulated it broadcast over Indiana. It contains the following points:

"The Democrats have said Indiana needs a new constitution—Governor Marshall's constitution of 1911: 24 amendments adopted by the 1912 legislature as proposed by Senator Stotsenburg; bill calling for the vote of the people on C. C. at the election of 1914.

"Republicans, Progressives, Socialists and Prohibitionists have said so in their state platforms."

The women then gave their reasons why a new constitution is needed. Among them are the following:

Because: The present constitution is too long and not sufficiently flexible; the original constitution is outgrown; our amendment provision is almost prohibitive; constitutional changes should come from the people, not the legislatures; because our present system of taxation is unfair and inequitable, bearing most heavily on those least able to bear it."

Far down in the "because" list is the woman suffrage reason. The dodger states that the constitution should include suffrage for women. They also give the reason of the short ballot, home rule for cities and the demand that the unnaturalized foreigner "shall not continue to vote."

The dodger gives the necessary information on the convention, explaining that the vote will be taken Nov. 3, 1914, and that if the question carried there will be a special election of delegates on a non-partisan ballot March 2, 1915. It ends as follows:

"If 700,000 votes are cast at the election, 350,001 favorable votes must be cast in order that the measure may carry."

Ralston here the opening day is expected to bring a large crowd. On that day there will be a fox chase for the amusement of the governor and the crowd. There will also be another fox chase on Friday.

A free attraction for the day fair and another for the night fair is yet to be arranged for. An aviator wants to come here, but the board does not think this is as good an attraction as it once was and will probably find something which will fill the bill better.

On Wednesday night the free attractions will be a company of women aeronauts who will perform feats on a vehicle drawn by horses in front of the grand stand. There will also be a pony show Wednesday night. Thursday night there will be a pretentious display of fireworks, and if a suitable attraction can not be obtained for Friday night, the fireworks will be repeated then.

The better babies contest, which is a brand new idea for the Rush county fair, will arouse a lot of interest. The preliminary examination of babies will take place at the Graham school Wednesday of the week before the fair under plans already made public. Then the prizes will be awarded Thursday morning of fair week at ten-thirty o'clock in the grand stand.

Many other unusual things for the Rush county fair have been arranged. There will be a barrel race Thursday and Friday. F. E. Wescott, the druggist, will pay the prizes in this race. For as many entrants as there are, there will be suspended barrels by the middle from a pole. The entrants will start fifty feet one side of the barrels and the person who gets to a point fifty feet the other side of the barrel first, after having crawled through one of them, will win the prize.

Then there will be a mule race, watermelon contest, potato race and other freak contests. A stock parade of all stock contesting for premiums will be held on the big race track Tuesday while Governor Ralston is here. This is a feature of the fair which has been dropped in recent years. The premium stock parade will be held on Friday as usual.

Superintendents of departments will be asked this year to take active charge of their departments and stand responsible for them being filled by stock. The superintendents are requested to correspond with owners of show stock who follow the fares and offer them inducements to come here.

More attention will be paid this year to concessions. If the concession man can not pay his ground rent before the fair starts, he will not be given space. In this way the fair management hopes not to lose any money in this department as has been done in the past.

There will be preaching every Sunday at the Glenwood M. E. church. Morning service at 10:30 o'clock, evening services at 7 o'clock and Sunday school at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Oldham of Butler College has again accepted the charge at the Fairview Christian church. The Rev. Mr. Oldham was at this church last year. He will preach at Fairview the second and fourth Sundays in each month.

Regular services at St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. M. W. Lyons. Masses at 7:00 and 9:00 a. m.

Elder R. W. Thompson of Greenfield is expected to preach at the Primitive Baptist church Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening at the usual hours.

According to the Connersville News, a Mrs. Ralph Dubois, who stated she was married here, reported to the police here that her husband deserted her and succeeded in telling such a touching story that she was given free transportation to Hamilton, Ohio. The records here show that Herbert Dubois and Gladys Weiser were married by the Rev. C. M. Yoem on June 18. It is taken that this is the same couple referred to in the Connersville paper.

Mrs. Dubois told the Connersville police that her husband deserted her after they had been married three days. She gave her age here as nineteen but told the police there that she was only sixteen. In applying for a license the couple stated that her parents lived near Glenwood on the Rush county side of the line. The young woman's story impressed the officers and she was sent to some relatives in Hamilton.

Secretary Bryan thanked Mr. Castellon for the information he brought, and told him that, while recognition would not be accorded Carbajal, the United States was amicably disposed toward him and would applaud his patriotic efforts to bring about peace in his country.

Mr. Castellon left the State Department in a happy mood, and promptly telegraphed the result of his conference to Mr. Carbajal.

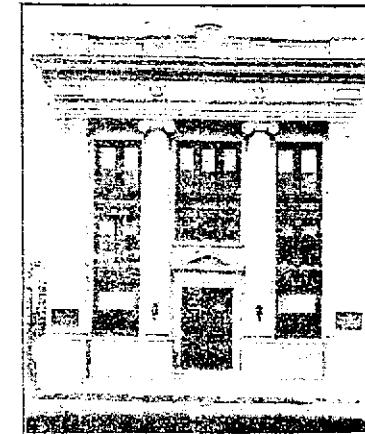

Secretary Bryan himself was highly optimistic in the belief that peace at last was in sight in turbulent Mexico, and he told his friends he believed the policy of "watchful waiting" and patience had been a success.

In order to assure a transfer of authority without further bloodshed of disturber, however, the American Government began to use its good offices with General Carranza. John R. Siliman, formerly American Consul at Saltillo and now personal representative of President Wilson there, received a long message from the State Department instructing him to urge upon General Carranza the belief of the United States that further fighting was useless on account of the readiness of the Carbajal government to surrender its power.
